

EXPLORE YOUR SPIRITUAL GIFTS

---

A series of workshops with Richard Baldwin to stretch your potential and strengthen your connections to the spirit world.

To be held in Aveley Essex, starting at 10-30am and finishing at 4-30 pm approx.

These workshops are for beginners and also for those already sitting for the development of their spiritual gifts.

They have been inspired and created by spirit, to strengthen your confidence in working with the spirit world and to increase your knowledge through experience.

Learn how to work with the subtle feelings that come through, investigating your own psychic and spiritual abilities.

I will help you to determine what you might consider is your imagination and how to tell the difference between spirit communication and your own thoughts.

I intend to hold regular workshops on the spirit world throughout 2006.

Subjects will include psychometry, meditation, clairvoyance, clairsentience, clairaudience, trance, inspirational speaking, colours, writing and drawing.

If you have any questions regarding the workshop, I will do my best to answer them.

I cannot teach you anything that you do not already know.

It is a sense of awakening knowledge held in trust for you so that when you are ready it will develop and grow from within, for many of us our sense of spiritual awakening lies dormant because we believe it is our imagination and not inspiration from the spirit world.

Our teachers and guides use our imagination to inspire us to explore and experiment with them, raising our vibration to greater heights. After all our scientists, writers, painters, and philosophers use their imagination, it is up to us to recognise our own spiritual potential by taking the time for ourselves.

The first rule of working with spirit is to recognise that you are spirit, and spiritual awareness comes through using your sensory perception and the easiest way for spirit to communicate is through feelings.
